

WHEN SHE COMES KNOCKING

Dan McDowell

"I'll do your crazy, if you'll do mine." – Ben Decker

After moving into a new house, Ben Decker works to lead his family toward an idealized future while running from the demons of his past. Their new neighbor has other plans.

A new house seems the perfect remedy to mending Ben Decker's scars.

He's a pill pusher that loves movies.

He's a family man that looks to the future.

But with every home, comes neighbors, and Jean Jackson wants more than a cup of sugar.

It'll take more than green grass and picket fences to slay his demons.

Lock your doors and close the shades.

This suburban nightmare begins now!

Author Bio:

Dan McDowell is a husband and father by day, and an author by night. The end result, chilling stories with gritty and real people facing unmistakable obstacles. With inspiration emerging from the best and the worst of Dan's nightmares, memories, and hyperactive imagination, he weaves tales of bizarre and intriguing proportions into a new stratosphere of descriptive writing that remains both distinct and thought provoking. He and his family reside in the San Antonio, Texas, area.
